

Message One—Study Questions

- 1. Based upon the opening word to Message 1 and a prayerful study of crucial verses in the book of Romans, answer the following questions: What is the gospel of God? According to Romans, who is the God revealed in the gospel of God, what is the content of this gospel, and what does it mean for us to be separated unto the gospel of God and for this gospel to become our gospel? In answering these questions, explain how the proper view of the gospel of God differs from the limited view of the gospel held by most Christians today and why it is necessary for us to be fully unveiled regarding the gospel of God.
- 2. What does it mean to say that the gospel of God is the totality of the divine truths, that the gospel actually includes the entire Bible, and that the real gospel preaching is the speaking of the truth? In answering this question, explain in detail, and with examples given both on the outline and in the spoken message, how the gospel of God is the fulfillment of the Old Testament.
- 3. What are the crucial points of the truth concerning the gospel of God as the proclamation of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery?

Set 1:

The gospel of God, the totality of the divine truths, is the proclamation of Jesus Christ according to the revelation of the mystery—Christ as the mystery of God and the church as the mystery of Christ.

The gospel of Christ as the threefold seed in humanity—the seed of the woman, the seed of Abraham, and the seed of David—is the good news of the revelation of the entire Bible.

The gospel of God is the gospel of the kingdom of God, which brings us under the rule of God's authority, and the gospel of the glory of Christ, which illuminates, radiates, and shines into our hearts.

Our service to God, our worship to God, is by the Spirit of God in our spirit in the gospel of His Son, and the issue of this service, this worship, is the reality of the Body of Christ.

Set 2:

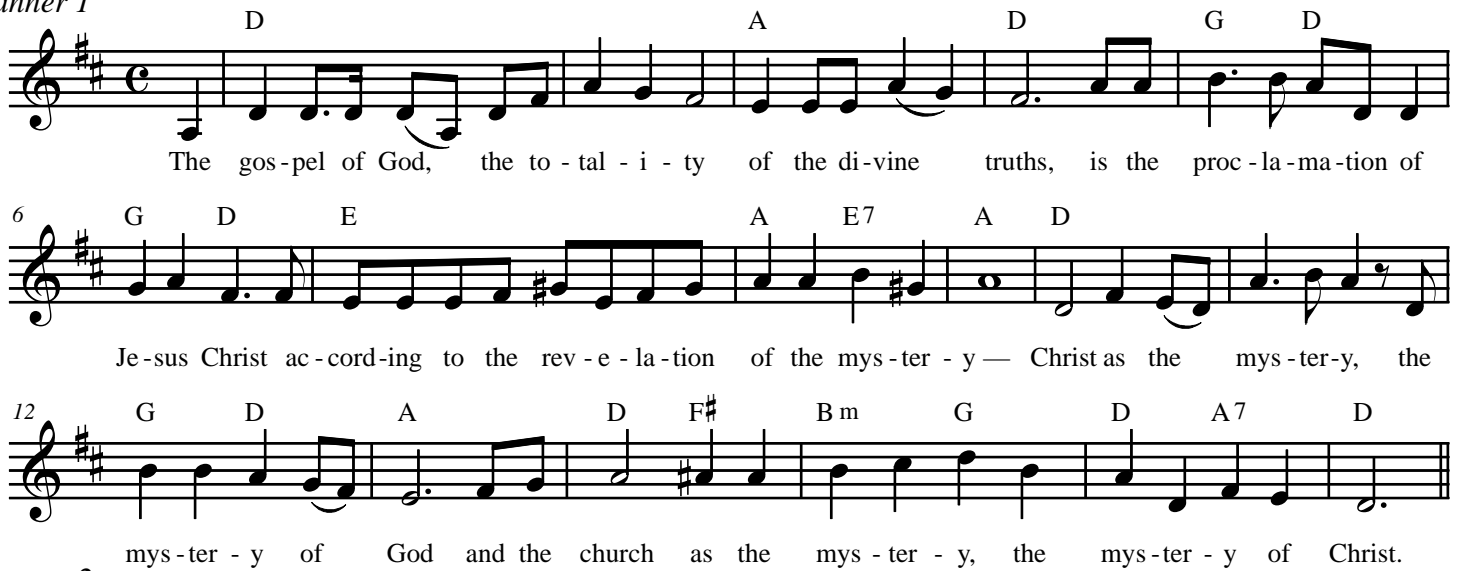

The genuine, intrinsic, highest, and fullest gospel is the gospel of God's economy—the gospel of sonship for the building up of the church as the Body of Christ by the building of God into man and man into God.

The goal of the gospel is that, loving the Lord Jesus with the first love, we would pour out upon Him what is most precious to us, even our most costly and valuable spiritual treasure, "wasting" ourselves upon Him.
